An innocent-looking little mouse caused considerable excitement in the Baptist church at Flemington, N. J., according to the Philadelphia Record. ness in the congregation The serv-Pastor Temple hesitated a moment and then asked the worshipers "if that was a mouse in the aisle."

Many women were not aware of the presence of a dreaded mouse, and when the pastor said "mouse," feminine courage presented itself, and there was increased confusion. While most of the male members looked upon the affair in an entirely different light, the women gathered their skirts about their forms and stood up. The women breathed a sigh of relief when Pastor Temple made the announcement that all those who were afraid should place their feet upon the rounds of their chairs. No time was lost in assuming this attitude, and then the services were resumed. A few minutes later the naughty mouse made its appearance again, and this time ran up to within a few feet of where Mr. Temple stood. The little animal stopped a moment, sized up the congregation and then ran back to where the congregation was scated. Everybody saw the mouse run toward Pastor Temple, and when it started to come back again everybody was anxious to know where it was going next. Shortly a small boy whispered in a tone that was audible several chairs away: "Here he is! Here he is!" and then there was another grabbing of skirts, a flutter of excitement and a rush for the doors. Finally the mouse fled, a hymn was started and order was restored.

A GREAT NEWSPAPER.

The Sanday edition of the St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The organization of its news service is world-wide, complete in every department: in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper.

The magazine section is illustrated in daintily tinted colors and splendid halftone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular ong, is furnished free every Sunday ir The Republic. The price of the Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.
